

Lewis Carpenter

HONOLULU, Hawaii — A celebration of life for longtime Camas doctor and former Camas mayor, Lewis Carpenter, was today in Honolulu. He died in Honolulu Friday, March 25, 1994 at the age of 87. His ashes will be buried in Washougal this summer.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth, at home; two sons, Richard of Portland and Edward of Seattle; a sister, Florence Blair of Portland; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Straub Foundation, 888 S. King St., Honolulu, HI 96813.

A more complete story about Dr. Carpenter was in Tuesday's paper. Column 6, 3/30/94